

CLASSMATES WILL CONDUCT FUNERAL

WORKING FOR A CURFEW LAW.

Representative Church Workers Will Send Petition to the City.

Fellow-Students of Father Kenrick to Say Last Rites This Morning.

REMAINS VIEWED BY HUNDREDS

Ceremony Will Be in Church of St. Vincent de Paul, Where He Was Ordained Priest Forty Years Ago.

The funeral of the Reverend Father David W. Kenrick, which will take place this morning from the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, Ninth and Barry streets, will be the most formal conducted in any Catholic church in this city since the funeral of Archbishop Kenrick.

A solemn mass of repose is to be said. The officers of the mass will either be schoolmates or lifelong friends of Father Kenrick.

The chant of the office for the dead will begin at 9 o'clock. The chanters will be the Reverend Fathers J. T. Hoover of Kenrick Seminary, the Very Reverend Father Kenrick, the Very Reverend Father Thomas A. Shahan, O.S.B., of St. Patrick's Church, La Salle, Ill.; and subdeacon, the Very Reverend Father P. V. Byrne, president of St. Vincent's College, Chicago, Ill.

The master of ceremonies will be the Reverend Father J. T. Hoover of Kenrick Seminary. The organ will be played by the Reverend Father D. P. Purcell.

The requiem will be chanted by the Kenrick Seminary Choir, composed of the ecclesiastical students of the diocese under the direction of the Rev. Thomas A. Shahan, O.S.B., master of the choir.

The active pallbearers will be the Reverend Fathers David P. Gordon, Anton Woestrich, Walter Walsh, John Moyer, Joseph Brungard and Arthur Fane.

The honorary pallbearers will be priests who are special friends of Father Kenrick.

ORDAINED IN SAME CLASS.

The Very Reverend Father Thomas Dennerline, one of the most intimate friends of Father Kenrick, will be ordained in the same class with Father Kenrick, as was also Father Phelan, who will preach the sermon. The organ will be played by the Rev. J. T. Hoover.

One o'clock Collins is a stave account, it is said, and he went to collect it. A quarrel, then a fight with hoes and clubs followed.

Afterwards, Ogle went into the house, took up an old muzzle-loading rifle and shot Collins in the hip, from which wound he died the following day, having died to death.

Ogle came in last night and gave himself up to the authorities.

Collins is a brother of Tim Collins, for many years a motorman on the Union Line in St. Louis.

Disappeared With Twenty Dollars.

A young man who gave his name as Groyer Michaels disappeared from an Olive street restaurant at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and has not been seen at the restaurant since. He was about 18 years old, was sent out to change a bill. He claims to have lived at No. 125 Market street, and when employed at the restaurant said he had just come to St. Louis from Danville, Ill., where he died at 6 o'clock the next day.

The remains, in charge of Father Nugent of Kenrick Seminary, reached here at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. During the day they lay in state in the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, where they were viewed by hundreds.

Father Nugent says the telegram report of Father Kenrick's death was in the main correct. The train on which he was a passenger reached El Paso at 6 o'clock in the evening, and had not been seen at the rest station since. He was about 18 years old, was sent out to change a bill. He claims to have lived at No. 125 Market street, and when employed at the restaurant said he had just come to St. Louis from Danville, Ill., where he died at 6 o'clock the next day.

The Very Reverend Father Shaw, the deacon, was one of Father Kenrick's most intimate friends, and the Very Reverend Father Bryan, a student with him, who was present at the service. The organ will be played by the Rev. J. T. Hoover.
